Background:

Generations in Jazz Festival (GIJ) is inviting Australian Big Band Composers to create new works to be featured as Set Piece (test piece) for the National Stage Band Awards at Generations in Jazz, 2025 with specific requirements pertaining to each of these divisions as outlined below.

The winning composers will each receive $2000 in prize money.

Entry Fee: No Entry Fee Required

Eligibility: Applicants must be an Australian citizen and 25 years of age or younger as at June 1st 2024.

Closing date: 15.07.2024

Questions:

Questions can be directed to Generations in Jazz via email to admin@generationsinjazz.com.au

Compositions Details:

Instrumentation - The compositions are to be orchestrated for a big band comprised of the following instrumentation:

5 Saxophones (alto sax 1, alto sax 2, tenor sax 1, tenor sax 2 and baritone sax),
4 x Trumpets
4 x Trombones
1 x Piano
1 x Drums
1 x Bass (electric or double bass)
1 x Guitar
1 x Vibraphone
1 x Percussion

Auxiliary percussion may be omitted from swing compositions but encouraged across all styles where possible and appropriate.

You will also be required to submit the following alternate parts if your piece is written for Division 4:

Flute
Clarinet 1 (alternate for Alto sax 1)
Clarinet 2 (alternate for Alto sax 2)
French Horn (alternate for Trombone1 )
Tenor Sax (alternate for Trombone 2)
Tenor Sax (alternate for Trombone 3)
Tuna (alternate for Bass Trombone).

All Compositions may include featured soloist(s).

STYLE

The musical style is up to the composer and may incorporate styles idiomatic to jazz such as Swing, Bossa-nova, Afro-cuban, Funk, Fusion or Contemporary straight 8th grooves.

SUBMISSION DETAILS

Submissions must:

1. Include a single PDF file of a fully notated transposed score, generated from a music notation program such as Sibelius, Finale, Dorico, Musescore (or other). Please note that handwritten sketches will not be accepted.
2. Include a single Mp3 file of a recording or audio representation of the original composition. While live recordings are encouraged, it is understood that live recordings may not be possible, therefore, Mp3 files of exported midi will also be accepted.

Audio files must be submitted in mp3 format only.

Note:

All submissions will be judged on their compositional merits, regardless of performance and audio quality.

3. Be labelled identically with the division number and title of the composition e.g. Division 4 Walk in the Park
4. Be completely anonymous files. The composer's name (or any other name) must not appear on the score or labelled on any submitted files. Additionally, any audible verbal count in or introduction should be omitted from the recording.

Any identifying features of any submitted file will make the submission void.

Submissions will be forward to judges for blind assessment.

5. Be submitted before 11:59pm AEST on 15.07.2024
6. Include a completed official entry form (to be completed online) www.generationsinjazz.com.au
7. Be submitted as two (2) separate labelled files - 1. PDF of score, 2. Mp3 audio file.
8. Be submitted separately for different divisions should an applicant be submitting more than one composition.

Please note: Submissions will not be returned under any circumstances to the sender and it is the competitor's responsibility to ensure that they do not send any 'masters' of any notated files, audio files or any other content.

PRIZE

The winning entry will be awarded a cash prize of $2000 (AUD).

Winners will be notified in via phone and email and published on the Generations in Jazz website.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Submitted works must be original compositions, meaning it is the unassisted conceptual work of the composer other than receiving general guidance or advice from a teacher or mentor
2. Submitted works must be unpublished.
3. Submitted works must be limited to one original composition per division. Applicants may submit original compositions to more than one division. A single original composition cannot be submitted across multiple divisions.
4. Submitted works must not exceed the range requirements as specified for each division.
5. The composer must be an Australian citizen or have permanent resident status in Australia.
6. The composer must be 25 years of age or younger by 1 July 2024.
7. Composition may have been previously performed.
8. A condition of accepting the prize will be granting performance rights to Generations in Jazz and exclusive performance, recording rights and use for up to one year after the festival or as negotiated.
9. The Generations in Jazz Board reserves the right not to award any prize, to reserve or partially distribute the prize money, and/or to negotiate modifications to submitted scores.
10. In the event that the judges deem that no submission has reached the required standard, the prize will be retained for a future competition. The judges' decisions are final in all respects.

No correspondence or communication will be entered into by the Generations in Jazz or the judges on any aspect of the competition.

11. Works other than the winning entry may be chosen for performance and or use; in which case a performing fee will be negotiated.
